

Pin Basting - Encyclopedia

I'm ready to take this to my sewing machine and machine quilt this, but before I do that, I wanted to show you what it looked like when I pin basted it. So before I even got to this point, I decided that I was going to not draw any sort of designs on this quilt. I was just going to do what is called "stitch in the ditch" where I take my sewing machine and I just stitch down these seam lines. I also decided that I'm going to put a different type of border on here, that this border...
